24 SECONDS WITH THE NAZARENE

The spectacle of a nation praying is unsurpassing than the force of an atomic bomb. The force of prayer is greater than any possible combination of man's controlled powers. In cease prayer is man's greatest means of tapping the infinite resources of God.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor of the Citizen:

In general postal service is over the entire country is completely efficient. There is an occasional delay or misplaced letter. However, considering the true vast scope of the service, our complaints are insignificant. In light of the commendable record of performance, day after day one hesitates to make an suggestion for improvement. The United States Post Office do have one suggestion which thinks will exist with systematic. There is serious need for mail box in the upper part town preferably in the vicinity of Bessmeres. The daily mail box service from mail box along the R. F. is adequate. Nevertheless I frequently find necessary to go into town to mail my letters because of the need to avoid the delay which would be caused if I wait for the first mail train following morning. The solution the fastest was type and I wanted to mail a letter as

WARNECK - BEAN

At a ceremony Saturday afternoon, June 25, in the West Parish Congregational Church, Miss Jewel Williamson Bean, of Boston, daughter of Mrs. Albert Bean, and the late Mr. Bean, became the bride of John McCrellis Warneck of Bethel, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Warneck of Wayne, Pa.

The bride wore a gown of ivory clipper satin with lace appliques. Her fingertip veil was caught in a crown of crystals and pearls. She carried a cascade of pink roses, miniature white carnations and ivy.

Mrs. James A. Cooney, Jr., of Marlborough, Mass., a sister of the bride, was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Ginevra Bean, another sister of the bride, and Mrs. Carter L. Bean of West Paris.

Carter Warneck was his brother's best man. The ushers were Caleb L. Bean, brother of the bride, and James A. Cooney, Jr., of Marlborough.
